

Deploying Static Vue Applications: Playbook

DEPLOYING TO VERCEL

Jeremy Morgan

SOFTWARE / DEVOPS ENGINEER

@JeremyCMorgan www.jeremymorgan.com

Deploying to Vercel

Jeremy Morgan

SOFTWARE / DEVOPS ENGINEER

@JeremyCMorgan www.jeremymorgan.com

Why Vercel?

Front end first

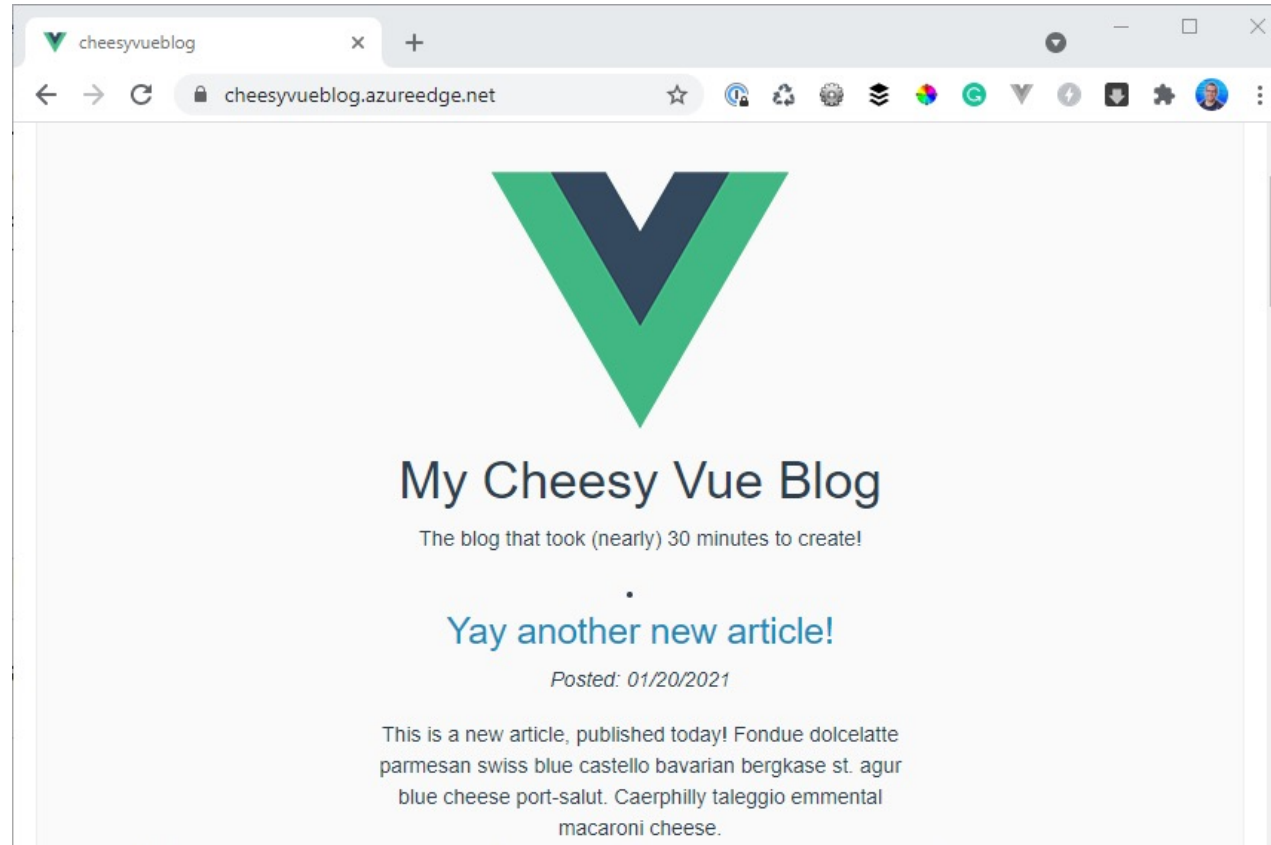

Great performance

Easy integration

Scaling

The Cheesy Vue Blog

<https://github.com/JeremyMorgan/Cheesy-Vue-Blog>

Module Overview

What is Vercel?

Deploying websites with Vercel

Using the Vercel CLI

Adding a domain name to Vercel

Creating branch subdomains

What is Vercel?

Platform as a Service

Hosting static sites

Automated builds

Content Delivery
Networks

Branch Deployments

Templates

Analytics

Pricing

Contact

Login

Sign up

Develop.
Preview.
Ship.

Start Deploying

Get a Demo

Traditional Web Hosting

Developer

Web Host

Traditional Web Hosting

Developer

Web Host

Vercel PAAS

Comparison

Web Hosting

You may need to configure web server

Single server or datacenter

Have to build software and upload it

Responsible for your own source
control

Platform as a Service

No configuration

Distributed across regions

Build servers create website

Hooked to source control

Deploying a Site to Vercel

Using the Vercel CLI

Adding a Domain Name to a Vercel Site

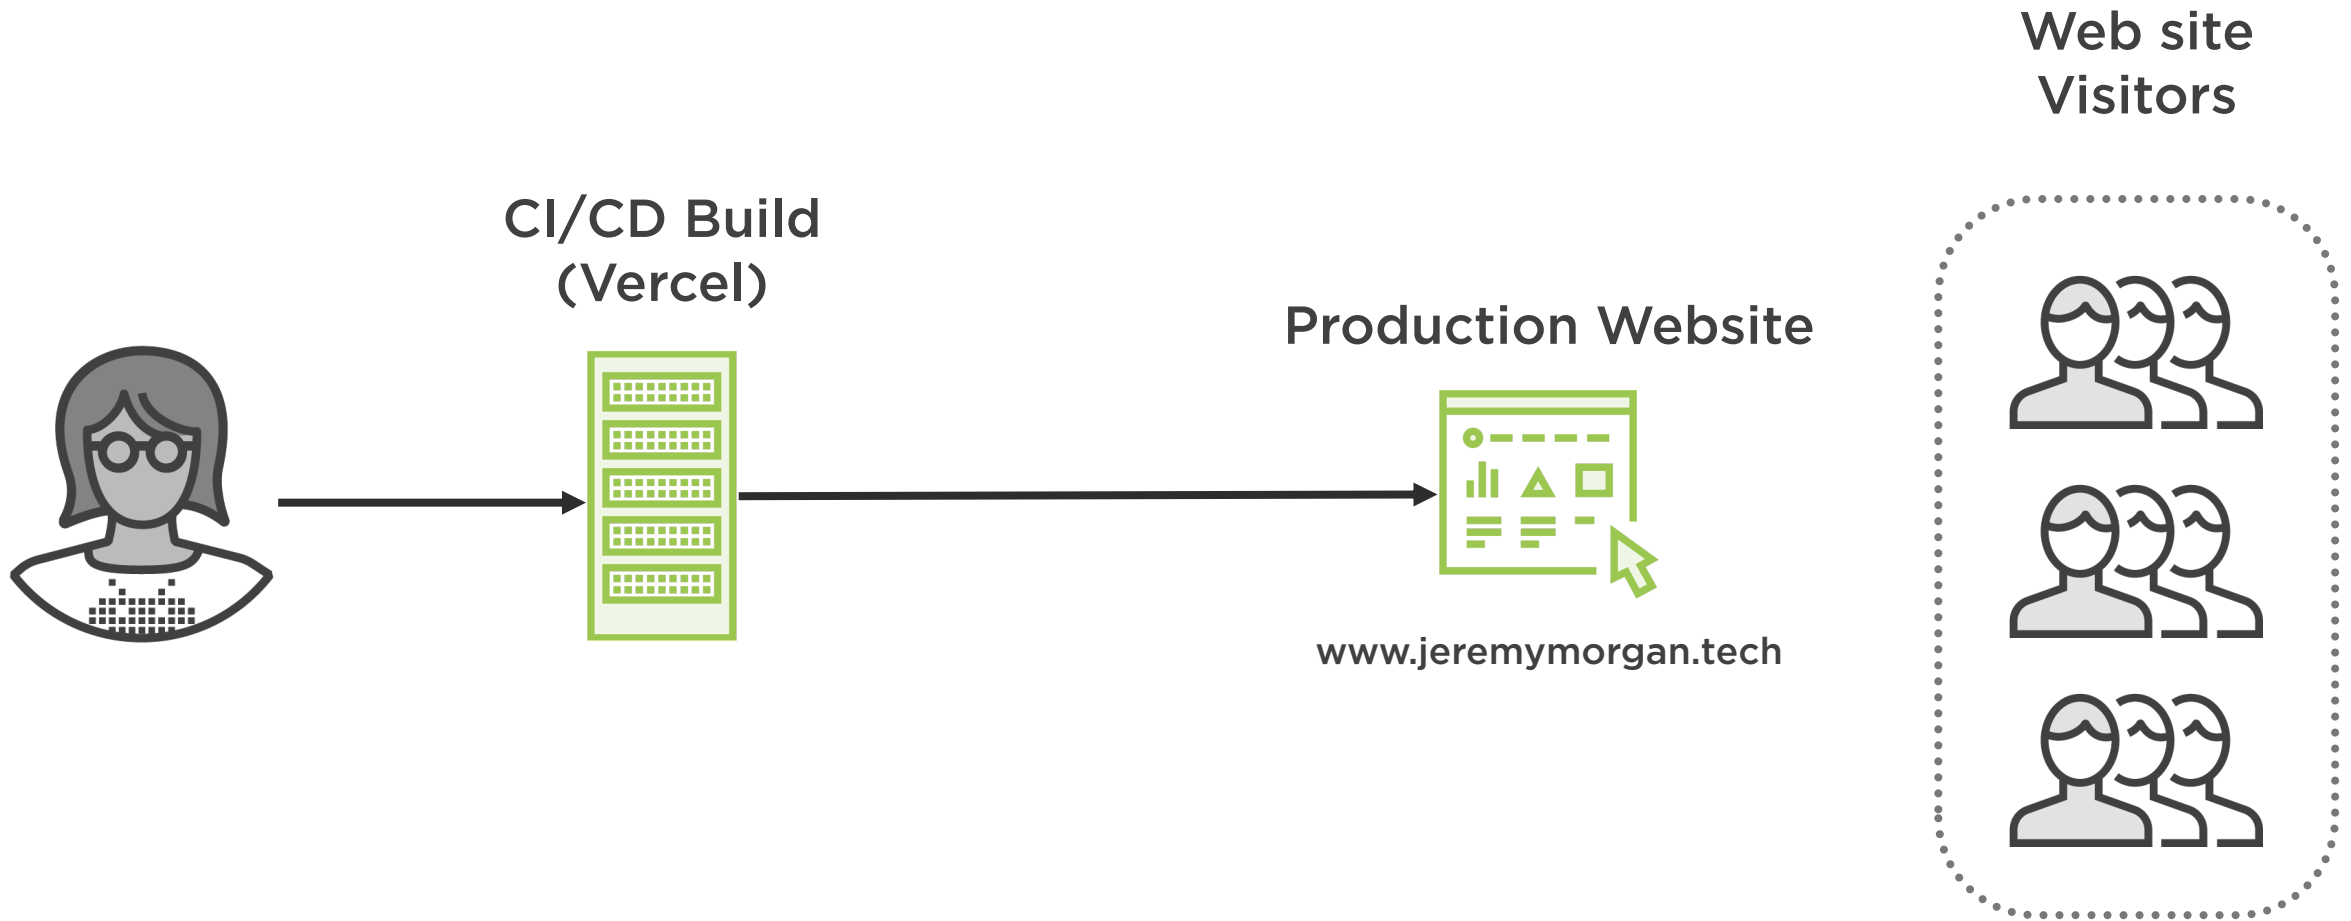

How Domains Work

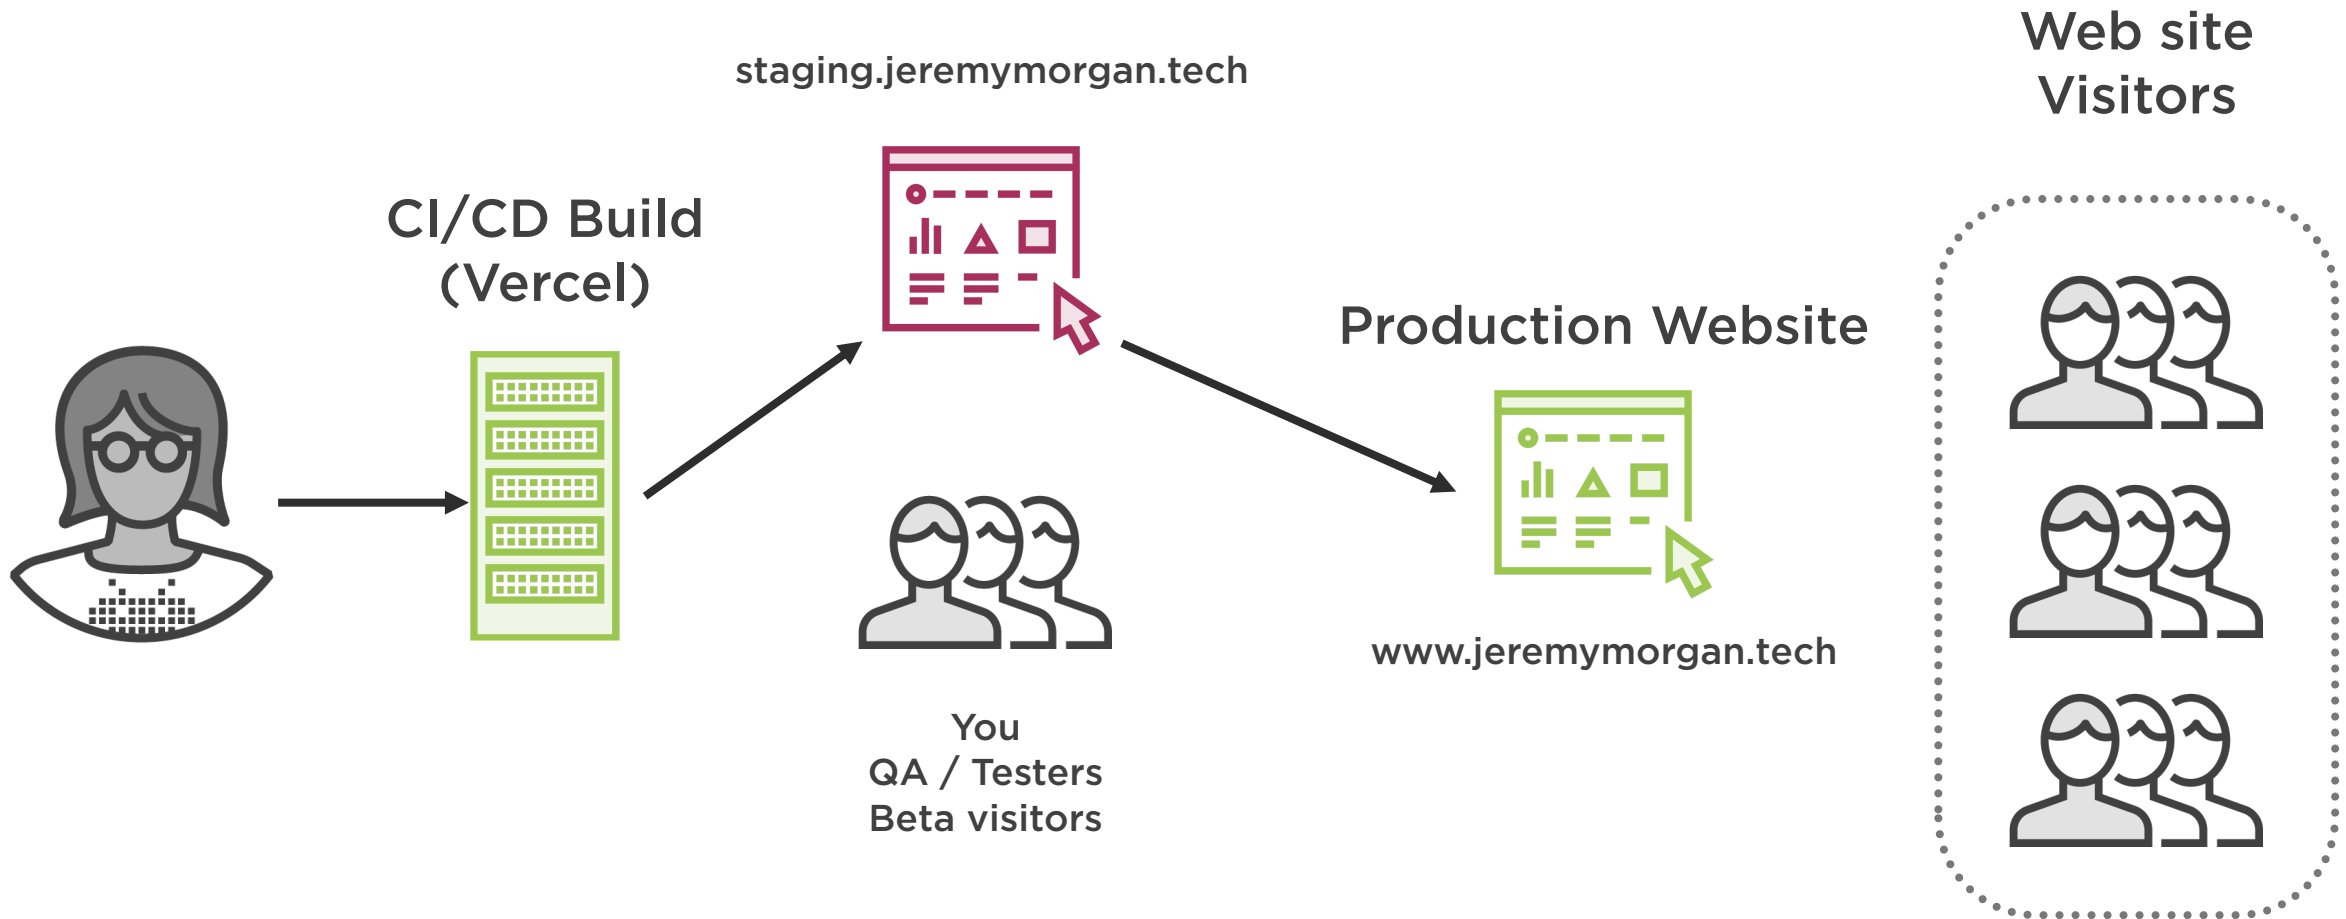

Creating Branch Subdomains

Branch Subdomains

Branch Subdomains

Summary

Vercel

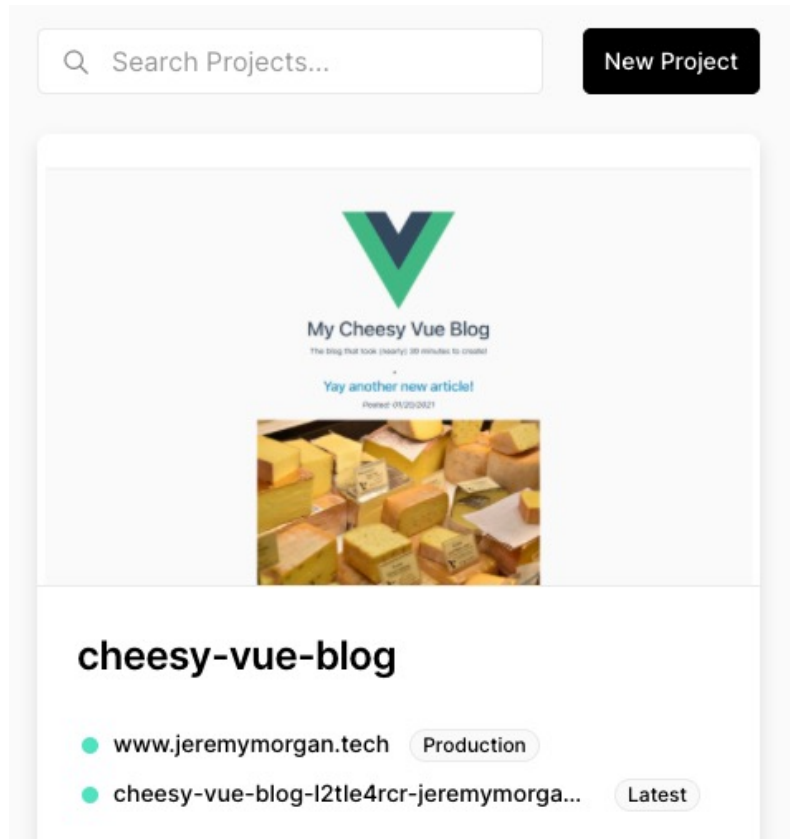

Easy to use

Customizable

Easy integration

Why Vercel?

Static website

No webserver Configuration

Continuous integration

Summary

Learned about Vercel

Deployed a website with Vercel

Leveraged the Vercel CLI

Added a domain name to Vercel

Created branch subdomains

